

THE NEW PLAYS

"Ziegfeld Follies"
A Thing of Beauty.

BY CHARLES DARTON

WITH an appraising eye, the perennial Ziegfeld hits your eye with his latest "Follies," revealed last night at the New Amsterdam Theatre. After saying

THE FAMOUS ROYAL SCARLET BRAND

SHRIMP Large and firm and retaining all that delicious "fresh from the water" flavor, appeals to every economical housewife.

"Royal Scarlet" Shrimp can be served in a number of ways. For salads and as a garnisher in connection with lettuce or sliced tomatoes it is unequalled.

this, there is little left to say. In girls, costume and scenery, the "Follies," marking this year of grace, war and poor old, overworked Shakespeare, may, honestly be called a thing of beauty. For that matter, its beauty might easily shame the noon-day sun, if anything of that sort should happen to come out these days. First of all, it has girls whose mothers were good to them. Punch trees in full bloom are neither here nor there. Even when winter comes again, the college boy may find cause for cheer and cheering as he subscribes himself to Mr. Ziegfeld's attractive platform.

Talk about your Shakespeare festival! On this rare occasion Juliet sneaked from her balcony and exclaimed, "Ah, Romeo!" while he responded, "Oh, Juliet!" Altogether, this Shakespeare celebration had more humor than "Caliban"—it was even funnier than Louis Mann as Shakespeare in the "Follies" Frolic. If there was nothing dazzling in the book and lyrics by George V. Hobart and Gene Buck, the fact that it was a dance that was a credit to the electrician. In fact, it was "features" that put the performance on its feet. The scenery and costumes made this latest edition of the "Follies" a glorious cabaret show. The music by Louis Herch, Jerome Kern and David Stampfer never rose above the familiar ragtime variety. To say, then, that the "show" was "fair" is to be quite fair about it. Certainly the authors were unfair to that born comedian, Bert Williams, who was a ridiculous Othello, only to see on his shuffling feet when it came to a song that left him flat. This was the greatest disappointment of the night.

Mr. Pennington danced out of a "movie" picture delightfully; Frances White sang industriously; W. C. Fields mixed croquet with golf amusingly, and Dan Barclay scored one of the funniest bits of the night as the queen of the harem in a highly clever travesty on "Sheherazade." As Theda Bara, "the vampire of the movies," danced again in the burlesque of a ballet dancer of Yiddish peculiarities, Fannie Brice raised shouts of laughter. That clever little lady of the tight wire, Bird Millman, danced herself into favor in mid-air.

It is with its scenery, its costumes and its pretty girls, however, that this elaborate production makes its appeal as the most artistic "Follies" of Ziegfeld's spectacular series.

TWO LONG YEARS HE SUFFERED

"Fruit-a-lives" Made Him Feel As If Walking On Air

Orillia, Nov. 28th, 1914. "For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-lives' make you feel like walking on air.' This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends." DAN McLEAN. 80c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited Ogdensburg, N.Y.—ADVT.
